

What's Your Story?

In order to help us get to know each other as a class, it's always good to know who we are, and where we've come from in life. Each time we get together, we may have a few people share their life stories. The goal is to give all class members the opportunity to introduce themselves and talk about their life and faith journeys so far.

Hopefully, this will give us the opportunity to get to know each other better. As we listen to the stories, the paths that our class members have walked down will likely surprise you. Some will have stories similar to yours, and others will have stories that are completely different. Along the way, we'll likely discover both the commonalities and differences in your class will help you connect with and appreciate each other.

Keep in mind, no big presentation is required. You are simply asked to introduce yourself. A great way to do this is to identify three key people who have played a significant role in your life, three events that have affected you, and three places that are special to you. By talking about these things, you'll cover a lot of ground. Go ahead and identify people/events/places before it's your turn, so that you'll be prepared. Feel free to be creative with this. You are welcome to bring pictures or other items for illustration.
